MEET THE JUROR Liz Pavlovic

Liz Pavlovic is a freelance designer and illustrator based in Morgantown, West Virginia. Pavlovic specializes in print design, branding, illustration, apparel graphics, and packaging.

Pavlovic's work is inspired by experiences in and out of Appalachia and enjoys finding creative solutions to problems.

Pavlovic graduated from West Virginia University in 2010 with a BFA in graphic design and a minor in creative writing.

"It was an honor to be included as juror for this year's exhibition and super fun from a personal standpoint. I was truly inspired by the various works from all of the contributing artists and especially enjoyed how many mediums were so well-represented, including fashion and interior design. All of the submissions showed originality of concept, refined technical skills, and a distinct artistic voice—which made the show a joy to experience, but also very difficult to judge! I'm really looking forward to seeing what all of the participating artists do next."

We would like to thank the donors who make the student awards possible including the Myers Foundations and individual donors Jamie Lester, Cynthia & David Myerberg, Judy Raese, Liuqing (Ruth) Yang, WVU Credit Union, and Karen Diaz—Dean of WVU Libraries. The practice of exhibiting is a vital part of these students' professional development, and we are grateful for the support for this important opportunity.

Please consider making a difference in the life of a developing artist or designer by donating to the WVU School of Art and Design at give.wvu.edu.
